How it works

01

Install

Add Poof to Chrome from the Chrome Web Store.

Click the Poof icon in your toolbar to open Settings.

02

Create account

Enter your email to get 10 free AI tickets.

Your license key is saved automatically.

03

Connect Jira

Enter your Jira URL, email and API token.

Poof fetches your projects automatically.

04

Select text

Highlight any text on any webpage.

Right-click → Create Jira ticket with Poof.

05

Review & create

AI generates title, description, type and priority.

Edit if needed, then click Create in Jira.

Jira Setup — Step by step

This takes about 2 minutes. You only need to do this once.

1

Find your Jira URL

Open Jira in your browser and look at the address bar.

Copy everything up to .atlassian.net

Example:

yourcompany.atlassian.net

Do not include https:// — paste only the domain.

2

Create Jira API token

Go to: id.atlassian.com/manage-profile/security/api-tokens

b

Click Create API token

c

Name it Poof and click Create d

Copy the token immediately — it's shown only once!

e

Paste it into Poof Settings → Step 3

■ Important:

Copy the token before closing — you cannot see it again.

3

Find your Project Key

Open any ticket in your Jira project and look at the ticket ID.

Example: ticket

PROJ-123

→ your key is

PROJ

This is your default project. You can change it per ticket inside Poof.

Poof will also automatically fetch all your projects when you finish setup.

Key features

◆ AI ticket generation

Claude AI analyzes your text and fills in title, description, type and priority.

◆ Manual mode

Skip AI and create tickets manually. Manual tickets don't count toward your free limit.

◆ Multi-project support

Switch between Jira projects in the popup. Set a default project in Settings.

◆ File attachments

Attach up to 3 files per ticket — screenshots, PDFs, logs, videos.

◆ Regenerate

Not happy with the AI result? Hit Regenerate for a fresh ticket without closing.

◆ Light & Dark mode

Switch themes anytime. Your preference is saved automatically.
